Four NIS centres to be set up

By Our Staff Reporter

KOCHI DEC. 16. The University Grants Commission (UGC) will launch the National Institute of Sciences (NIS) in four centres across the country aimed at promoting fundamental science education in undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

V. N. Rajasekharan Pillai, vice-chairman of the commission said here today that 100 students would be admitted to the five-year long integrated programme offered by these institutes. The Centres will come up at Chennai, Pune, Bhubaneswar and Allahabad, he said.
