NIS: Students urge Kalam to intervene

Friday November 4 2005 10:20 IST

BHUBANESWAR: Expressing resentment over the shifting of the National Institute of Sciences (NIS) from Bhubaneswar to Kolkata, students of Utkal University have called upon President Dr A P J Abdul Kalam to intervene and ask the Centre to reconsider its decision.

More than 1000 students of the post-graduate streams of the University have submitted a memorandum to the President stating that the decision to transfer the project by the HRD Ministry was an act of grave injustice to the people of the State. They said it has dealt a severe blow to the aspirations of students and researchers from various universities.
