BJYM to stage anti-UPA rally in city on December 9

Saturday November 19 2005 10:25 IST

BHUBANESWAR: The Bharatiya Janata Yuva Morcha (BJYM) will organise a State-level rally here on December 9 protesting alleged neglect of State by the UPA Government.

The Morcha will highlight the steps taken by the NDA Government for the development of the State and 'step-motherly' treatment of the UPA Government to the State by reversing all decisions of the previous government at the Centre.

National BJYM president Dharmendra Pradhan told media persons here on Thursday that the rally would be addressed by BJP national president and Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha L.K. Advani.

The shifting the National Institute Science to Kolkata is the latest instance of neglecting the State by the UPA Government, Pradhan said and expressed serious doubt about the fate of the oil refinery project at Paradip.
