NIS shifting dominates Assembly

Pioneer News Service/ Bhubaneswar

The shifting of the proposed National Institute of Sciences issue once again dominated the proceedings of the State Assembly on Thursday.

The Higher Education Minister Samir Dey in response to a question from Aswini Patra and Bishnu Das said the shifting of the NIS has been a conspiracy by the Central Government hatched in the wake of the ensuing election of West Bengal.

Mr Dey informed the house that the Speaker has already announced to constitute a House Committee, which would Delhi to discuss the matter with the Prime Minister. The Chief Minister Nveen Patnaik had already apprised the Prime Minister the concern of the State over the issue and the PM has reportedly assured Mr Patnaik that the NIS would not be shifted.

However, the Center in its affidavit maintained that there was no proposal for establishing the NIS in Bhubaneswar.

He however, said the affidavit in the Orissa High Court on the shifting of the NIS was not based on facts.
