PM to arrive in Orissa today*Pioneer News Service | Bhubaneswar

A special chopper is coming from Delhi to take Congress leaders to KBK districts along with the Prime Minister Dr Monmohan Singh have raised a political storm in the State. Most of the leaders on the condition of anonymity disapproved the gesture of the Prime Minister Office (PMO) office in this connection.

Generally, the Prime Minister's entourage cover three helicopters only. But another chopper is coming from Delhi to take the Congress leaders to the KBK district along with the Prime Minister. AICC General Secretary V Naryan Swamy is coming along with this chopper.

Other senior State Congress leaders along with Mr Swamy would accompany the PM to KBK districts. This has kicked off a row whether Mr Singh's visit is official or a political nature. While the Prime Minister would give 15 minutes each to the Governor Rameshwar Thakur and the Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik, the delegation of Congress party workers have been given 30 minutes time. This has also raised question about the intention of the Prime Minister's proposed visit to the State ahead of Panchayat election.

The Prime Minister will reach here at Bhubaneswar Airport on Monday at 10.40 am by an Indian Air Force Boeing The State Government would accord a red carpet welcome to the Prime Minister at the airport. From there he would directly proceed to Kaniha in Talcher to dedicate the super thermal unit to the nation. He will reach at Talcher at 11.25 am and remain there till 12.30 pm.

He will come back to Bhubaneswar via Jajpur and Dasarathpur, the flood-affected areas of the State. However, the chopper will not land anywhere. It may be noted that the Congress party has urged the Prime Minister to pay a visit to the flood affected areas.

Singh will arrive here at 1.30 pm and directly proceed to Raj Bhawan for lunch.

At 5.10 pm, he will go the Institute of Physics and announce the establishment of National Institute of Science Education and Research.

Dr Singh will leave Institute of Physics at 6.20 pm and at 6.30 he would meet the Governor Rameshwara Thakur for 15 minutes only. Then Dr Singh will meet the Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik for 15 minutes from 6.45 to 7 pm. From 7 pm to 7.30 pm, he will meet the delegation of Congress party workers. After that he will address the press and then meet few delegates.

He will leave for Bolangir on Tuesday morning and arrive at the Tursa airport at 9.10 am. From 1.15 am to 12.15 pm, he will be in Bolangir and review various programme. At 1.30 pm Dr Singh will leave for Sunabeda. At 4 pm, he will take a review meeting at Koraput and 4.40 pm he will leave for Delhi via Vishakapatnam.

A tight security net has been thrown across four districts, including the state capital, ahead of Prime Minister Manmohan Singh's maiden visit to Orissa beginning on Monday.

"There will be fool-proof security arrangements in the districts the prime minister will be visiting. We are also keeping a vigil throughout the state," DGP Suchit Das said.

Singh is scheduled to visit the naxal-infested Koraput district, the headquarters of which was run over by 400 extremists in February 2004, and the industrial hub of Talcher in Angul district, near Deogarh, which has also been hit by the naxal menace. Singh's two-day visit, which was suddenly drawn-up, has forced the state police machinery to move into top gear.
